

Sam Saguy - Professor Emeritus of Food Innovation & Technology, the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel. Main research focused on open innovation, new product development, consumer research, modeling, kinetics, shelf life, optimization, rehydration, frying and wetting. Global experience includes both academic and industrial research. Member of the Executive Group, European Academy of Food Engineering (EFFoST), Editorial Scientific Boards, IFT Press Editorial Advisory Board. Fellow (IFT & IUFoST), Lifetime Achievement Award (IAFE), Academy Member (IAFoST), Certified Food Scientist, CFS (IFT), Visitante Distinguido de la Universidad Nacional de Cordoba (UNC), Argentina. Academic Life Time Achievement Award: ICEF and the Food Industry Association-Manufacturers Association of Israel. Global industrial affiliation (>10 years: e.g., Molson Coors Brewing Company, US; Nestlé, Switzerland & US; The Pillsbury Company & GrandMet, US; Marks & Spencer, UK). Also, Founder and Managing Associate (11 years): MJI, Israel - A Consumer Research & New Product Development Company (SME).

