

Mini Bio Franco Burgio

Born and raised in Germany with an academic background in Law, Politics and International Studies acquired in several European Universities (Heidelberg, Bologna, Göttingen, Groningen, Brussels).

Started his working life at the University of Heidelberg and moved to Brussels in 2003 to join a political foundation. After gaining experience in several Technical Assistance Offices of the European Commission he was recruited by the Education, Audiovisual & Culture Executive Agency of the European Commission in 2007 where he currently serves as Programme Manager for the Capacity Building Programme within the framework of the Erasmus + Programme.