

CV - honey & bunny

Gilgegasse 14/ 7

A- 1090 Wien

Tel: ++43 1 403 47 81 email: honeyandbunny@aon.at

Sonja Stummerer

Born 22 February 1973 in Vienna, Austria

1991- 98 studying architecture at the University of Applied Arts in Vienna

1999- 01 „Master of Architecture“ at the „Architectural Association“ in London/ GB

2001- 2003 Project architect at Atelier Arata Isozaki & Associates/ Tokyo/ Japan

Seit 2007 expert civil engineer and Member of the Viennese Architectural Chamber

Martin Hablesreiter

Born 05 February 1974 in Freistadt, Austria

1993- 00 studying architecture at the University of Applied Arts in Vienna at Prof. Hollein and Bartlett School of Architecture in London

2001-03 Projekt architect at Arata Isozaki & Associates in Tokyo/ Japan and at Prof. Helmut Richter in Vienna

Sonja Stummerer and Martin Hablesreiter founded 2003 the interdisciplinary Designatelier honey & bunny productions in Vienna. Together they designed various lofts, shops and appartements and they were directors at the movie „food design – the Film“, they conceptualised various exhibitions (for example „food design“ in the MQ Vienna „food | design | humanity“ in Lodz and „eat | body | design“ in Zürich. Their installation „EAT DESIGN“ is part of the permanent exhibition of the Viennese Museum of Applied Art (MAK).

Both published 2005 the book „food design – from function to pleasure“ (Springer Vienna / New York) and 2009 „food design XL“ (Springer Vienna / New York) and 2013 „eat design“ (Metroverlag, Vienna).

Stummerer and Hablesreiter held numerous lectures, they have been guest lecturers in Romania, Turkey and India and currently they teach at the Austrian Marketing University of Applied Sciences, the University of Salzburg, the Johannes Kepler University in Linz and the University of Fulda.