

Vienna Food Tour

Austria's cultural and culinary centre, Vienna, is bursting with more than 20 daily outdoor markets. The "City of Dreams" boasts a rich history that stretches back to Roman times and astounds with its architectural beauty and diversity.

As diverse as its architectural styles are Vienna's food cultures throughout the city. Classic Viennese favorites including Schnitzel, Tafelspitz and Apfelstrudel are famous all over the world. Modern Viennese cuisine offers these and so much more. Join us on a walking tour to discover for yourself these varied—and tasty—traditions in the heart of Vienna as we share our favorite producers and markets with you.

Why? Since the 13th century, markets have been an important part of Viennese life. Even today, they are one of the best ways to get to know the city. Meeting people, taking in the culture, and tasting a variety of delicious treats—who wouldn't love to spend a few hours strolling through the markets?

What? Our tasting tour offers an authentic experience of Austrian culture. By tasting different food and hearing the stories behind it, you will get a glimpse of everyday life in Vienna from a fresh angle.

Join us, and experience a culinary and cultural journey that is informative, delicious, and fun!

Choose one of our tours

We offer two tasting tours which both focus on Viennese markets and their surrounding neighborhoods.

TRADITIONAL TOUR: including the upscale Kutschker Market and its neighborhood.

Experience a small but unique market and discover traditional Austrian products and authentic tastes. Get to know producers and vendors who love their produce. We are sure you will too!

MULTICULTURAL TOUR: bridging two different neighborhoods—the multicultural Hannover Market and historic Alsergrund.

Hannover Market and the 20th district are known for their cultural and culinary diversity, which include for example Turkish, Serbian, Polish, Bosnian, and Austrian influences. Join us as we bridge two totally different districts and experience two sides of Vienna.
